Premier Brick Sales Expands into Florida

[Tampa, FL] – Premier Brick Sales, LLC, is thrilled to announce its expansion into the Florida market with the launch of Premier Brick Sales of Florida, LLC.

This is a major step forward for the company, building on its success with local partners in Indiana and Illinois. Headquartered in Tampa, Premier Brick Sales of Florida will represent and distribute premium clay building products and other cladding materials from northern Florida to the southern shoreline. Co-owned and led by long-time Florida experts, Doug McCall and Craig Akers, the leadership team is perfectly positioned to serve the state's architects, builders, and masons.

"We couldn't be more excited to partner with Doug and Craig. Their expertise, combined with our strong backing, will allow us to bring the highest-quality brick solutions and exceptional service to our Florida customers," said Brad Belden, President of The Belden Brick Company.

Ryan Parker, President of Endicott Clay Products Company, added, "Our business is still about personal relationships, customer service, and adding value. With Doug and Craig leading the charge, we're confident that Premier Brick Sales of Florida will quickly become the go-to resource for anyone seeking top-tier architectural brick, thin brick, pavers, and other building materials."

Premier Brick Sales of Florida, LLC will offer a full range of high-quality clay and related products, providing solutions for a variety of projects. The company is committed to building strong, long-lasting relationships and delivering reliable support to all its clients.
